

FAQ - The Darkk Side Syndicate

What is a syndicate?

Syndicate Share Ownership is more than just owning shares in a competing stallion. It's about bragging rights, unique experiences and exclusive breedings to a world-class sire!

In a horse ownership syndication, people can buy fractional ownership shares of a horse. In The Darkk Side Syndicate, there are 100 shares total. Syndicate share holders will be apart of The Darkk Side's career, without having to be physically involved in his day-to-day care. Additionally, each syndicate share holder receive two breedings per year to The Darkk Side, beginning in 2024.

Will The Darkk Side stay in training?

Yes. The Darkk Side will continue to stay in training with Trevor Brazile and Miles Baker. The best part is, your training AND show bills through December 31, 2024 are INCLUDED with the initial syndicate share purchase!

Who will manage the syndicate?

The Syndicate Managers will be F.E. "Butch" Wise. Butch has extensive experience managing syndicates in the racehorse industry.

The syndicate will have a yearly meeting to discuss and vote on all matters relating to the syndicate. Each shareholder will be entitled to one vote during syndicate meetings. The Syndicate Manager and Attorney will direct the meeting. All financials and pertinent information relating to the syndicate will be available for syndicate owners to review at this time.

Where will The Darkk Side stand?

The Darkk Side will stand at Lazy E Ranch in Guthrie, Oklahoma. Monty McNair will act as the Stallion Manager on behalf of Lazy E Ranch.

Can I sell my share?

Syndicate shareholders may sell their share, as long as they follow the guidelines set forth in the contract.

When can we start using our breedings?

You will have the option to have two (2) ICSI breedings for 2023. Since he will be showing, The Darkk Side will be available for frozen semen/ICSI only in 2024. The syndicate will decide what to do for the 2025 breeding season at the yearly meeting.

Can I sell my breeding(s)?

Yes. Breedings must be sold for a minimum set price, which is set at a yearly syndicate shareholder meeting.

Who gets the money for the horse's winnings?

The winnings will be dispersed as follows:

Total Money Won minus Show Expenses (entry fees, hauling, etc.) equals Net Money Won

Exhibitor and the syndicate will split net money won 50/50. All winnings will be deposited into the syndicate account to help pay any other expenses.

Who pays the bills for the syndicate?

The goal is for the syndicate to be self-supporting (i.e. We don't ever want you to get a bill). The syndicate will sell 10 breedings per year to support syndicate expenses. The syndicate will pay for stallion slot yearly nominations, frozen semen collection and other customary stallion ownership expenses.
